

Monday	Objective: Student will identify types of stocks
	Warm-up: Brain Teaser and stock vocabulary
	Activities: Discuss last week's oral presentations Discuss the types of stocks Review Homework (Students will explain the reason they chose a particular stock) Review Stock Online Activity Introduce the Wall Street Concept
	Materials: computer
	Follow Up/HW: current events
Tuesday	Objective: Student will look up various stock symbols using the internet
	Warm-up Match symbols to stocks
	Activities: Research and discuss how to read stock symbols and track stock prices Use handout to complete exercise
	Materials: internet, computer, wall street journal
	Follow Up/HW:
Wednesday /Thursday	Objective: Student will demonstrate how to convert currency
	Warm-up Identify different types of currency
	Activities: Currency Conversion (Acct page 87) Handout: Locate a currency conversion site on the Internet. Use the search terms: currency conversion or currency rates.
	What is the name of the currency in Austria?
	What is the current exchange rate for the Saudi Arabian riyal?
	How much is the U.S. dollar worth in British pounds? In Japanese yen?
Current Events: Find current event articles referencing the stock market and foreign currency
Materials: internet, handouts
	Follow Up/HW:
Friday	Objective: Student will identify different currency and how it affects the stock market
	Discuss current event article Class discussion on how to complete Project #3 – The Stock Market and Me
	Materials: internet, computer, article
	Follow Up/HW: